GolfDojo Renews Partnership with the Western New York PGA for Second Consecutive Year

East Amherst, N.Y. — April 4, 2025

The Western New York Section, PGA of America is proud to announce that GolfDojo has renewed its role as a Supporting Partner for the 2025 season, marking the second year of collaboration between the WNYPGA and one of the region's premier indoor golf and training facilities.

GolfDojo, with its state-of-the-art technology and commitment to year-round improvement, continues to provide a high-performance space for golfers and PGA Professionals to train, teach and play—especially during the long WNY winters. Their renewed partnership highlights a shared commitment to advancing the game through innovation, connection and professional support.

“We’re excited to continue working with GolfDojo,” said Victoria Schiro, Executive Director of the Western New York PGA. “Their facility is a top-tier resource for our professionals, and their commitment to the Section has been outstanding. We’re proud to have them back for another year of support and engagement.”

Additionally, GolfDojo is offering preferential access and discounted offseason rates for WNYPGA Professionals who wish to use the facility for instruction, training or personal play—further strengthening its role as a go-to indoor golf destination in the area.

“Partnering with the WNYPGA allows us to connect with and support the best professionals in the game,” said a GolfDojo representative. “We’re proud to continue this relationship and provide a space that fuels the passion for golf all year long.”
