

Daniel Rettig, PGA

Daniel Rettig is a Class A PGA Professional with more than a decade of leadership experience in golf operations, club management, and player development. Daniel currently serves as Head Golf Professional at Orchard Park Country Club, previously transitioning from General Manager and Head Golf Professional at Tri-County Country Club. Daniel had played a key role in revitalizing the facility and navigating the course through a catastrophic clubhouse fire.

A two-time Western New York PGA Merchandiser of the Year and a multi-time nominee for PGA Professional of the Year, Daniel is recognized for his commitment to elevating member services, mentoring staff, and advancing the game at the community level. He holds a Master's Degree in Sports Management from Canisius College and a Bachelor's Degree in Physical Education from St. Bonaventure University.

Passionate about helping the next generation of PGA Professionals grow, Daniel brings a member-first philosophy, strong operational insight, and a genuine desire to support others in their career development.
